DETAILED ACTION

EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Michael J. Urbano on 12/06/05.

The application has been amended as follows:

In claim 13, at line 6, delete "movable" and insert therein --movable MEMS--

In claim 13, at line 7, delete "movable" and insert therein --movable MEMS element--

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-13 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Claim 13 contains allowable subject matter for at least the reason that the prior art of record fails to teach or reasonably suggest a micro-miniature x-ray apparatus for steering focused x-rays in a selected direction comprising a source, filter MEMS element and means for controlling as claimed. While movable collimating elements are known per se in the x-ray art, a MEMS element for collimating or focusing is not taught or suggested by the prior art of record. While Whitlock (US 6,333,968) teaches a small-scale device with chip-sized components, a collimator or focus control lens of Whitlock is not movable.

Art Unit: 2882

Given the deflection elements taught, Whitlock suggests means other than MEMS means for moving a beam. Furthermore, a filter is not present. Fiebiger (US 5,170,722) also teaches a small-scale source of x-rays, but the collimation means (9) is not movable, nor is a suggestion given to create a chip structure for a MEMS device.

Claims 1-12 remain allowable for at least the reasons given in the Office action dated 04/08/05.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
